Good time management simply means deciding what you want to get out of life and efficiently pursuing these goals. Time management does not mean being busy all the time—it means using your time the way you want to use it—which can include large doses of day dreaming and do-ing nothing. Good time management brings with

ALL IN GOOD TIME (Ecclesiastes 3:1-15) ... If it was up to me, I'd choose all the good things nothing that would bother me or hurt me or stretch me. But God loves us too much to let that happen. He knows we would become like self-centered, spoiled rotten children. We wouldn't grow to maturity in faith if we didn't face the struggles ...
